

Barbel Day

Saturday 29th September 2012

Hinchingbrooke Country Park, Countryside Centre Brampton Road, Huntingdon, PE29 6DB

Program

10.30 – 11.00	Registration & Coffee/Tea on arrival
11.00 – 11.10	Welcome and opening address Ian Hirst, Team Leader of Fisheries and Biodiversity.
11.10 – 11.30	Barbel growth and trophic ecology Rob Britton and Josie Pegg – Bournemouth University.
11.30 – 12.00	Radio tracking barbel in the Great Ouse Karen Twine – Hull International Fisheries Institute
12.00 – 12.20	Barbel Society research and conservation Peter Reading – Barbel Society
12.20 – 12.40	Spawning gravel quality Karen Twine – Hull International Fisheries Institute
12.40 – 13.00	Questions and Answers
13.00 – 14.00	Lunch break Buffet lunch provided and an opportunity to view other research being undertaken by Hull International Fisheries Institute.
14.00 – 14.20	Gravel jetting and stocking on the upper Great Ouse Kye Jerrom – Environment Agency
14.20 – 14.40	Young barbel in the Great Ouse Karen Twine – Hull International Fisheries Institute
14.40 – 15.10	Two decades of research on the environmental biology of barbel in the River Lee Gordon Copp - Cefas
15.10 – 15.30	Future research; barbel scales and crayfish tails Jon Grey – Queen Mary University of London
15.30 – 15.45	Questions and Answers
15.45 – 16.00	Closing thanks